To get to the 2010 and 2011 detailed CSV files, you can find them in our reference in the Lab Tutorial. This allows you to download the file into your local files, and from there, you can import it into Elasticsearch and start analyzing the dataset.